

3MT News Piece

On 29 May 2019, 3 NTU PhD students, Natallia Khaniejo, Samyukta Ravishankar and George-Cristian Potrivitu Bocanet, participated in the 3 Minutes Thesis – Singapore (3MT@Singapore) competition held at SUTD among 12 finalists from SUTD, NTU, NUS and SMU. Dean of Graduate College, Professor Jimmy Hsia attended the event and served as one of the 5 judges.

We congratulate our NTU student, Natallia Khaniejo, for clinching the first prize of the event! This is the first time an NTU student has won the country-wide competition of 3MT@Singapore since its inception in 2016. Speaker of the Parliament of Singapore, Mr. Tan Chuan-Jin presented the awards to the winner and runner-up.

As the winner of the 3MT@Singapore, Natallia will represent Singapore in the 2019 Asia Pacific 3MT competition to be held in Australia on 4 October 2019.

Our heartiest congratulations as well to the runner-up and all other finalists of the 3MT@SG!
