SUPERVISING POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS WORKSHOP FOR FACULTY

Virtual Workshop
by Dr Elaine Walsh
30 Nov & 3 Dec | 9am to 11am | Livestream

About the workshop:
This workshop aims to provide an opportunity for participants to discuss good practice in research supervision. Through a range of case-studies, role-plays and drawing on the experience of the group, it creates the opportunity to discuss and acquire a range of strategies and techniques for effective supervision. Participants will be required to complete a pre-course questionnaire and view a series of presentation videos prior to the workshop.

About the speaker:
With a background as a Chartered Engineer in aerospace engineering, Elaine is a freelance soft skills development consultant and an expert in doctoral education and career management. For more than ten years, Elaine led the team responsible for postgraduate professional development at Imperial College London, supporting more than 6000 graduate students in realising both academic and career goals. Elaine continues to research on doctoral education issues including the evaluation of skills development courses, the wellbeing of researchers and the role of creativity in scientific research.
